FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cleveland, Ohio. (February 19, 2010) - For the first time, coffee purveyors Phoenix Coffee located at 1300 W. 9th Street, turn the lights down low to bring you a new candlelit concept: Phoenix After Dark. Phoenix is the only B.Y.O. destination in Cleveland's Historic Warehouse District. Beginning February 25th, you are now welcome to bring your own beer or wine to the West 9th Phoenix for a $5.00 corking fee per bottle of wine or $5.00 per six pack.

To kick off Phoenix After Dark, please join us on Friday, February 25th and Friday, March 4th, from 6:30 to 9:30 PM for two special Cabernet wine and chocolate pairing evenings. Next door neighbors Constantino's Market (located at 1278 West 9th Street) will offer a special selection of Cabernet wines for purchase by the bottle. Then stroll over to Phoenix where patisserie talent Courtney Bonning from locally owned Bon Bon Baking will provide a variety of inspired chocolate treats such as flavored truffles, tarts, and cupcakes. Additional non-alcoholic beverages such as teas, coffee, espresso drinks and soft drinks will also be available. The cost is $8.00 in advance (purchase online www.phoenixcoffee.com or at the West 9th store), or $10.00 at the door – includes corkage fee, a glass, a chocolate covered strawberry, and an array of delectable miniature chocolate desserts.

Tasteful, decadent, sophisticated. Phoenix Coffee realizes there is a desire for an evening alternative downtown filled with quiet elegance and European ambience, like one might find in the cafes of Paris or Vienna. Phoenix After Dark is the perfect spot for a date, a group outing, or as a way to enjoy time away from home alone without having to fight the crowds at a loud bar or booming nightclub. Enjoy your own selection of wine or beer, while the bustling daytime Phoenix neighborhood coffeehouse ambience is transformed into candlelit tables and soft background music. A perfect way to unwind after a long week, cap off the evening after dinner out on the town, or as a way to jumpstart the weekend before a theater show or concert. Cleveland's coffeehouse culture just became a little bit sweeter.
